

Mudslinging, Muckraking & Apple Pie: Presidential Campaigns, The Great American Pastime

Political campaigns are getting down and dirty. How did this campaign craziness get started? Believe it or not, campaigns have actually gotten more civil over the years. Don't believe it? In this program, hear the stories of the mudslinging and muckraking of Jefferson vs. Adams in 1800, Jackson vs. Adams in 1828, and Lincoln vs. Douglas in 1860. Learn about the 1912 campaign when Teddy Roosevelt decided to start his own political party! GEHS is delighted to bring actor and professional speaker Terry Lynch from HFK Presents for this informative program. Refreshments served.
