

Safeguard Surveillance Privacy Statement

Safeguard Surveillance does not collect any privacy information about any individuals who participate in our saliva surveillance program. All schools and school districts are contractually bound to never send Safeguard any information concerning or otherwise identifying any surveillance participants. No privacy data about participants is known, processed, or shared by Safeguard Surveillance with anyone.