

POLAR EXPLORATION

at the Glen Ellyn Public Library

Nature in Trouble: The Plight of Polar Bears

Thursday, January 21 • 7-8:30 pm in the Meeting Room

Hear about the survival of polar bears and protection of their habitat from Sandy Stevens, a Glen Ellyn resident and freelance journalist who traveled to Churchill, Canada to learn about these magnificent animals.

Beyond the North Pole with John Huston

Tuesday, January 26 • 7-8:30 pm • 2nd Floor

Enjoy the highlights from the high latitudes when John Huston, a veteran explorer, walks you through his expeditions to Greenland, the South Pole, the North Pole, and Ellesmere Island. Huston's book Forward: The First American Unsupported Expedition to the North Pole, will be available for sale and signing.

Curling: The Roaring Game

Tuesday, February 2 • 7-8:30 pm in the Meeting Room

Learn all about the coolest winter Olympic sport—curling! Curling is known as the "Roaring Game" with the "roar" being the noise of the granite stone as it travels over the ice. Hear an overview of basic curling rules, strategy, history and traditions from the Windy City Curling Club.

Winter Wonder Magic Tales

Saturday, February 20 • 2-2:45 pm in the Meeting Room

Experience the thrill of the chill! Explore a magical winter landscape, meet hilarious puppet characters and see astounding winter-themed magic. Combining amazing magic, storytelling, traditional puppetry, and lots of audience participation, Mr. Kipley, an award-winning performer, packs his performance with fast-paced, clean family fun.