Exhibit - Website Listing of Development and Training Completed by Board Members

Each Illinois school board member who is elected or appointed to fill a vacancy of at least one year's duration must complete State-mandated professional development leadership training (PDLT) and the Open Meetings Act (OMA) training. State-mandated training is also required for Board members who want to vote upon a dismissal based upon the Performance Evaluation Reform Action(PERA) . For additional information, see Board policy 2:120, Board Member Development.

The following table contains State-mandated training requirements and other professional development activities that were completed by each Board member. When the Illinois Association of School Board (IASB) provided the training the acronym "IASB" follows the listed activity.

Name	Development and Training Activity and Provider	Date Completed

IASB is a voluntary organization of local boards of education dedicated to strengthening the Illinois public schools through local citizen control. Although not a part of State government, IASB is organized by member school boards as a private not-for-profit corporation under authority granted by Article 23 of the School Code. The mission of the IASB is excellence in local school governance in support of quality public education.
