District Digest

from Glen Ellyn School District 41

Reminder: No School Monday, September 4 - Labor Day

Board Meeting Information

The next two Board meetings will feature special guests and conversations.

Finance Advisory Committee

On Tuesday, September 5 , community members who serve on the Finance Advisory Committee (FAC) will meet with the Board during the regularly scheduled meeting. The meeting will take place at the Central Services Office and will start at 6 p.m. . The agenda will begin with the FAC. The Board and the FAC will discuss the committee's role and how the committee can help counsel the Board moving forward on budget/finance related topics. The regular business portion of the meeting will begin at approximately 7:00 p.m.

Referendum Architects and Construction Management

On Monday, September 18 , the Board of Education will hold a special meeting at Hadley Junior High School, 7 p.m., to hear from Wight & Company, the district referendum projects architect, and Frederick Quinn Corporation (FQC), the district construction management company. They will present design options and cost options for the Board's consideration related to an addition at Hadley Junior High to replace 10 portables classrooms, as well as a new secure entryway at Churchill Elementary School. These projects are made possible by community support of the referendum last spring. Thank you!

Participate in Parent Camp September 16

District 41 is hosting Parent Camp on Saturday, September 16 at Hadley Junior High from 8 a.m. to Noon. Parent Camp is an opportunity for District 41 teachers and parents to have conversations about what is best for kids. The keynote speakers who will kick off the morning will be Glenbard West High School counselors Jeremiah Wiencek and Mike Neberz who will address emotional, social awareness and relationships that develop healthy kids and how adults can provide support.

Sessions are forming now and sign up will be open soon. For session registration and more information about Parent Camp click here.
