

2005-2006 PEP GRANT RECIPIENTS

P.A.L.S. - Pupil's Analysis of Learning Styles, Belinda Jane Summers, District 15

Building Background Knowledge Through Visual Picture Walls, Amy Eberly & Karin Schoenberg, District 16

Math and Science Literature and Videos, Laura Konkel, District 16

Project OPEN: Opportunities Presented to Everyone Now, Karen Lundgren, Cathy Gerlach & Joyce Carey, District 41

Think and Eat: A Time to Stretch Your Problem Solving Skills*, Ginny Reynolds, Kim Krupicka, Nancy McCaffrey, Laura Lee & Lynn Rumel, District 41

Reaching All Readers Through Leveled Reading**, Julie Snyder & Julie Podulka, District 41

What's Cookin'?'**, Christine Ballenger & Marie Delahanty, District 41

Reading Independence Through iPods**, Diane Fanning & Heather Beaman, District 41

Connecting Our Singular Spirits to the World**, Laura Hisako Pleines & Julie Maher, District 41

Answering Essential Questions Requires Essential Materials in Every Language, Brenda Kawano, Gary Krasno & James Rodgers, District 87

Freshmen Small Learning Communities in Family and Consumer Science, Ruth Ann Seney & Melissa Hennessy, District 87

Movies, Movies and More Movies!: Utilizing Best Practices in Research, Pam McDermott, Deborah Pruitt, Craig Hofmann, Amy Wojtas, Katherine McGrath, Patrick Doyle & Kris Casey, District 89

An Integrated Voyage Across the Content Areas: Application of Non-Fiction Reading Strategies, Pam Smith, Ann Kolling, Julie Stemper-Brown & Ryan Bonelli, District 93

The Non-Fiction Connection: Linking the Classroom to the World, Paula Hennessey, District 93

* Includes a matching grant from the PEP 41 Fund

** Funded through a gift from the Carolyn Strayer Memorial Fund